

Quality Policy

G H Raisoni Institute of Engineering and Management, Jalgaon is committed to provide quality education to the students to cope up with the advancement in technologies and making them capable to face challenging situations in the fields of: Science, Engineering, Technology and Management.

Objectives:

- To develop overall personality growth of students.
- To provide state of art infrastructure and ICT enabled teaching methodology
- To encourage Research and Development programmes.
- To enhance faculty competence through skill set training and pedagogical trainings
- To inculcate moral and ethical values to become a good human being.
- To work in partnership with industry, premier institutions for mutual benefits.
- To undertake continuing education programmes for the benefit of community around.

